Next Half term's topic

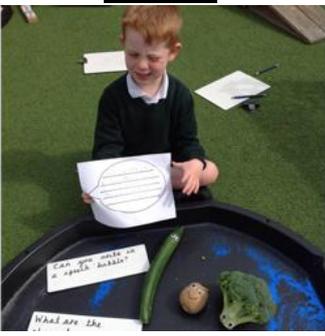

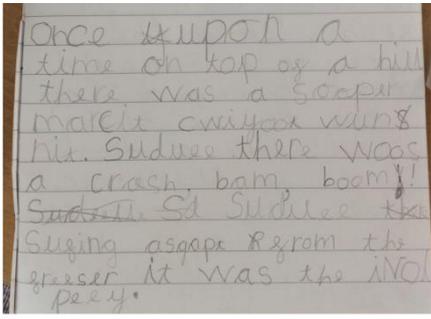

Next half term our topic is called 'Oh I do like to be beside the seaside'. We will be learning about lots of things that are to do with the seaside: animals that live in the sea, on the sea and by the sea, pirates and mermaids. We'll be reading 'Sharing a Shell,' 'The Snail and the Whale' and many other books that are set at the seaside. We'll be counting pirate treasure, sharing mermaid shells and lots of other fun number activities. We look forward to sharing our learning with you.

Building Learning Power – This week's learning stars

Resilient Tortoise	Reflective Owl	Resourceful Squirrel	Relating Bee
Sully Maiker for not giving up when tackling challenging tasks.	Charlie Day for learning from his mistakes in his writing.	Quang Darcy-Ly for using the phonic sounds display to help him write digraphs.	Ashling Burgess for fantastic independent writing without grown up support.
Erisa Alia for preserving when writing sentences that could be read by others.	Maisy Toombs for editing her English work to ensure it makes sense.	Olivia Terry-Pond for using her imagination to write her own stories.	Melody Lush for being very kind and thinking about other people's feelings when they are sad.
Lilly Little for being resilient when reading a tricky book.	Esme Alsop for being reflective and working hard on improving her handwriting.	Frankie Giles for being resourceful and using the working wall to help him with his writing.	Maisey Hayward for working well with others in her class.

Super Learning

Here is some fabulous work from the Year R children.
