Building Learning Power – This week's learning stars

Resilient Tortoise	Reflective Owl	Resourceful Squirrel	Relating Bee
Chloe Larder for not giving up even when work is challenging.	Katie Wicken for learning from her mistakes in writing and working hard to improve her work.	McKenzie Warner for coming up with his own ideas in literacy rather than using the examples given by the teacher.	Leighton Hunt for working well as part of a team in PE.
Andreas Tudor for trying hard and persevering to learn science language.	Liam Turner for writing descriptive sentences with interesting adjectives.	Charlie Geddes for being able to explain his understanding of floating and sinking.	Aleeisha Sargeant for working hard and sensibly in a team.
Orla Neill for trying really hard with her reading in school.	Charlie Blake for using what he has learnt in his phonics lessons when he is writing.	Isobelle Scaddan for reasoning her thoughts during a science experiment.	Mason Hutchings for working as a team to solve maths problems.

Super Learning

Here is some fabulous work from the Year R children.

Ben completed his undersea/beach picture.	Komal Islam estimating how many bricks it would take to fill each shape.	Eddie wrote a beautiful pirate description with connectives.
